

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1895.

NO. 11

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—E. T. Fish cut his hand on a glass while opening a window.

—Mrs. Milly McClure, who has been ill for some time, is recovering.

—Dr. E. J. Brown was elected Lieutenant State commander at the recent Grand Tent meeting in Lexington.

—North street has been widened and opened up from Richmond street to Colyer addition and connects with Taylor Avenue.

—The J. C. Brown, who was killed by a train at London a few nights since, is not Jim Brown from this county as at first supposed.

—Two cabins were burned just North of town. One a week since, the other Wednesday night. Both thought to have been incendiary.

—James Parker, who had his arm amputated at the shoulder a few days since, is in a critical condition. It is thought the operation was delayed too long.

—The music class of the Institute, taught by the accomplished Miss May Miller, is rapidly increasing in numbers. Our citizens may expect a brilliant musical entertainment at the close of the school.

—Mr. George Cook, a prosperous merchant of Lexington, was in town this week. Mr. Sam Ward, the hustling candidate for representative, is again reviewing the hills and valleys of Rockcastle. Mr. M. F. Brinkley, the popular candidate for register of the land office, is greeting his many friends here this week. Mr. C. C. Williams, one of the attorneys in the Bowers estate case, has returned from Somerset. Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Weber are in Louisville. Mrs. Cleo Brown and Miss Mattie Williams are visiting relatives in Louisville. County Attorney Collier has been ill for some time.

—The depot agent at this place has a collection of copper and bronze coins. Specimens from Canada, Mexico, Nova Scotia, Honduras, Ireland, England, France, Spain, Holland, Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Madagascar, and China can be found in the lot. One tenth of a cent is the smallest denominations and are from China and Italy. A copper coin from Ireland with the Harp of Erin thereon is highly prized by the owner it being a present from an Irish friend. The latter coin is 150 years old. Other rare coins are to be found in the collection.

—The question of a graded school is being very seriously talked of. If we cured it will help to increase the population, thereby bringing money, in that it will more than make up for the high additional taxation. When people choose a place to locate, the first question asked is this, "Is there a good, permanent school there?" As Mt. Vernon has already taken some progressive steps, let her continue to advance and once more let it be said that her citizens have united on a question that pertains to the welfare of all. Posterity will bless you if you will give the vote in favor of a graded school a majority. In coming years it will be pointed to as a lasting monument to the memory of the wide awake citizens of 1895.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—A lecture on "Home and How to Make it Happy" will be delivered by Scott Anderson at the Baptist church, Crab Orchard, Saturday, April 6, at 7:30 p. m. Original, humorous, practical, Address 5 cents.

—Mrs. Lizzie Simpson and daughter, Miss Katie, of Garrard county, spent several days at Mrs. Beazley's the past week. Mrs. E. B. Carson and little daughter, Rhoda May, visited Danville last week. Miss Ada Roberts, who is attending school at College Home, visited her parents in Madison county Saturday and Sunday. Miss Alice Moore is visiting relatives in Danville. Miss Lillie Edmonson entertained a number of her little friends Monday afternoon in honor of her seventh birthday. Miss Lizzie Logan, of Stanford, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Boyd. Miss Lizzie Beazley is spending a few days in Garrard county. Col. and Mrs. Jas. W. Guest, of Danville, spent several days with Mrs. Laura Moore. Mr. Will Brooks left last week for Georgia and Alabama, where he will spend several months. Mrs. Mattie B. Stapp, after a brief stay at home, was called again to Louisville to the bedside of her father. Dr. Guy Payne, of Jessamine county, made a short visit to his parents last week.

L. O. T. M.

—The next meeting of the lodge of the Ladies of the Maccabees will be held at Odd Fellows Hall Monday night, 8th. The charter will not be closed for two weeks, at the expiration of which time Mrs. Cora Eves, of Port Huron, Mich., will return to give additional instructions in the secret work of the Order. She came here recently with the highest recommendations, and we all found her to be an excellent lady of unusual intelligence, thoroughly understanding her business, and she made warm friends of all with whom she came in contact. She is doing a noble work and the best wishes of her numerous Stanford friends will ever attend her. A full attendance is requested for next Monday night.

MRS. ANNIE JAMES, R. K.

HUSTONVILLE.

—"Doc" Drye will probably handle some fine horses this year.

—J. B. Cook was over from Lawrenceburg last week and spent several days with his sisters here.

—Dr. Alcorn was called by telegram to Newport to see J. B. Adams, who has been quite ill for some time.

—Bro. Bachar returned to Perryville Monday, after preaching one week. There were three additions and one infant baptized. Uncle Joe Hopper is continuing the good work.

—M. E. Allen's wagon team ran off the other day, but fortunately no damage was done save knocking down the steps outside of Mr. Steele's store and breaking the wagon tongue.

—The editor of the I. J. spoke of having Mr. Watterson lecture at the opera house, and we can safely promise to have Hustonville well represented if he will only get the great man to speak there.

—Willie Kennedy and Jim Clarkson, while returning from a visit to their best friends some nights ago, were thrown from the buggy and pretty badly bruised up. So much for going courting on a dark night.

—Mr. Geo. B. Cooper was up Monday. Mr. E. D. Kennedy went to Lexington last week. Mr. E. C. Walton stopped on his way to and from Liberty, and spent pleasant time with the Misses Cook. Mrs. E. C. Walton is also the guest of the Misses Cook.

—At the regular meeting of the town board an ordinance was passed establishing a "bull pen" in which all hogs found on the streets unrun are placed and the owner charged $1 each and 25 cents a day for redeeming them. If they are not redeemed in five days they are to be sold by the marshal to the highest bidder.

—The exercises at the College chapel last Friday night were a glittering success. It consisted of many charming instrumental and vocal solos as well as duets, choruses, recitations, dialogues and the College paper edited by Miss Kate Boughman. The paper was one of the best we have ever heard and glistened with many bright bon mots, wise thoughts and laughable personalities.

MIDDLEBURG, CASEY COUNTY.

—Messrs. Jason Wesley, George Durham, Wm. Bryant and Albert Kilney are attending court at Liberty as witnesses against "Tater John" Henderson for a breach of the peace.

—Rev. Grider, a cousin of Rev. F. Grider, pastor of the M. E. church, will preach at the Baptist church the second Saturday and Sunday, when a full attendance of the membership is requested.

—A Russell county man with a wagon loaded with maple sugar passed through last week en route to Danville. He tried to dispose of the load here at 10c per pound, but our merchants, like the fellow who prayed for a barrel of pepper, thought it was too much sugar.

—Fishing is fine here. Mike Jones and George Estes went Saturday night and caught a fine string and others have done equally as well. T. Carpenter and Jas. Rose were down from Hustonville Saturday, but they had fishermen's luck. Guess they didn't spit on their bait.

—County Superintendent P. H. Taylor has changed the boundary line between districts Nos. 2 (Middleburg) and 27 (Yosemite) so as to include the whole of the town of Yosemite in Middleburg district, and curses long and loud are being heaped upon the head of the superintendent by the Yosemite people.

—Why not agitate the free turnpike question in this county? It would relieve monotony and give us something new to talk about, if it did no other good. Let us have a candidate for the Legislature of that persuasion. How would Rev. G. C. Smith do? He could handle the subject on the raging stump with that gib tongue of his.

—Democrats carried their entire ticket through in Bridgeport, Conn., by a majority of from 1,000 to 2,500.

—A wind storm almost approaching a tornado swept over Boone county Monday. It badly damaged the hotel at Big Bone Springs, blew 12 hogsheads of tobacco into the river at Hamilton, left one house of the 10 in Lewisburg standing and blew down the Mt. Zion school house.

Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A pure medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the liver and gall, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood; will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Consumption and Indigestion, try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price 50c and $1 per bottle at A. K. Penny's drug store.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she is saving her life. Mr. W. H. Biggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a full cold, approaching consumption, tried without success every thing else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured and is saving his life. It is such results of which these examples, to prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at G. L. Penny, Esq.'s Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

WILLIAMSBURG, WHITLEY COUNTY.

—Arthur, the little son of Mr. R. D. Hill, is quite sick.

—The fishing has been fine in the Cumberland for the past week, but this cold spell will spoil it for a few days.

—Mrs. J. N. Prestridge returned Saturday morning from a two weeks' visit to her father's, Dr. Clardy, at Hopkinsville.

—Elder J. G. Livingston, of Crab Orchard, will preach here the first Sunday in each month in the future, instead of the fourth.

—Rev. J. N. Prestridge baptized 22 in the Cumberland last Sun. lay afternoon. They were converts of the meeting held at the Baptist church recently.

—Elissa Boyd, who is indicted in this county for cutting a man by the name of Hill several years ago, was arrested by Sheriff Burnett and lodged in jail last week.

—The new fiscal court is in session this week. Evidently 6 men are a great improvement over 20 to do the county's business and we hope they are also an improvement in quality.

—Father Feys, of Jellico, was down visiting Col. O'Mara's family this week. Mr. W. R. Durham has been suffering very much with his hand for the last week with blood poisoning.

—Dr. J. D. Adkins is at home after a few weeks' stay in Louisville, where he has been taking a special course in medicine. Mr. M. K. Pennington is at home from Knoxville, where he completed his first year's course in dentistry.

—Our people were considerably alarmed over the small pox being reported in the county last Saturday. Judge Rose had the matter immediately investigated so that the necessary steps might be taken to prevent the spread of it, and it was found to be false.

—Dr. A. A. Willets closed the lecture course Tuesday evening with his entertaining lecture on Sunshine. The Baptist church was well filled to hear him and everybody was very much pleased with the lecture. The committee will arrange for another course next winter.

—The Young People's Baptist Union was held at the Institute here, beginning last Saturday and closing Monday. It was an interesting session and quite a number of visitors were present, among whom were Dr. T. P. Bell, of Nashville; Prof. S. C. Mitchell and Rev. Z. T. Cody, Georgetown; Rev. R. A. Mahan, London; Dr. A. C. Graves, Lebanon; Rev. W. C. Cleveland, Springfield; Drs. W. P. Harvey and J. W. Warden, Louisville, and Judge J. R. Sampson, Middlesboro.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Miss Jennie Phillips, of West Liberty, is visiting at H. C. Thompson's.

—Miss Cornett of Williamsburg, visited Miss Sallie Harkleroad this week.

—John L. Phillips returned from a visit to his father at West Liberty and has taken his stand in the Faris & Co.'s store.

—An agent of Wolfe & Co., wholesale whisky dealers of Louisville, was tried before Judge Brown this week, charged with selling whisky to blind tigers at Pittsburg and was fined $50 for each offence. Judge Brown has taken a decided stand against the sale of whisky in this county, and will fight it to the bitter end.

—As stated in your paper, Miss Susie McHargue arose from table Friday and started out of the dining room, when she fell in the floor seemingly with a convulsion. A physician was hastily summoned but she was just breathing her last when he arrived. A post mortem was made by Drs. Ramsey, Pennington and Mason, and her stomach found to contain a large quantity of strychnine. Miss McHargue is a daughter of Sheriff McHargue, who was assassinated in Pulaski county about a year ago. She moved to this place with her mother and another sister shortly after the murder of her father. They have not borne very enviable reputations here and her disgrace doubtless caused her death. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of suicide.

—County Superintendent P. H. Taylor has changed the boundary line between districts Nos. 2 (Middleburg) and 27 (Yosemite) so as to include the whole of the town of Yosemite in Middleburg district, and curses long and loud are being heaped upon the head of the superintendent by the Yosemite people.

The I. J. Man in the "State of Casey."

It was not my intention to torture our readers with a letter on this trip, but our excellent correspondent, Mr. E. Tarrant, was too busy filling orders for his splendid history of the First Kentucky Cavalry to send a communication this week, and as a substitute for his good letters I offer this feeble effort.

Monday was the first day of circuit court and the usual large crowd was in attendance. It was horse show day too—another attraction which always proves a drawing card in this land where the equine is universally admired. The show was hardly up to the standard, although there were a dozen or more stallions on exhibition. Lincoln county, strange to say, was not represented by a single horse, but several owners were on hand distributing literature, interesting only to breeders.

There were two murder cases on the docket, Allen for killing Barlow and Devers for the murder of Purdon, both of which will likely be tried this court. There were also the usual number of whisky cases, which were being rapidly disposed of when I left. Concealed weapon cases also occupy a good portion of the docket. The women as well as the men violate this law and on Tuesday a Miss Hester was fined $25 and given 10 days in jail for "packing a pop." It is nothing unusual for the defendant to plead his own cause in the minor cases and some of the questions propounded are indeed amusing.

Three of Lincoln's best citizens were indicted at the last term and are to be tried this court. They are Messrs. Cicer Reynolds and George S. McKinney, of McKinney, for killing quail before the law expired and Mr. James Harper, of Hustonville, who is charged with disturbing the peace. The latter is a very plain piece of malice and he will come out all right, but the bird hunters may catch it for a small amount.

Casey has had a number of burglaries lately and in each case the scamps found and appropriated money. In one night the residences of Messrs. T. W. Wash, Lincoln Wells, J. D. Brown and Col. Lanham were raided and the total amount stolen makes a right snug sum. Mr. Wash's gun, which was sitting at the head of his bed, was missing, but was found next day on his farm.

Green river is being fished day and night now and some good ones are being caught. John B. Carpenter, an old Stanford man, a man told me that he frequently goes out a few moments before breakfast and catches enough fish for his score or more of mill hands. Judge R. J. Breckinridge, Dr. Orear and Mr. Scott McMerran, of Danville, who are quartered at Mr. John W. Moore's are doing a good deal of fishing, but their success has not been quite so good as that of Mr. Carpenter.

The bank question is being agitated and it looks very probable that one will be organized before long. Mr. George A. Prewitt is the principal mover in Liberty, but there are many prominent men all over the county, who heartily endorse his actions.

Messrs. Robert Fenzel and A. J. Earp, who are repairing watches and taking pictures respectively, are both doing well. The former is located in D. G. Portman & Bros' store, while the latter has a front room in the Exchange Hotel. They are both good workmen and deserve the patronage they are receiving.

Liberty is destined to have poor mail facilities it seems. For years her mail was put off at Kingsville and brought to Yosemite by the jerkwater train, half the time, more or less, however, it for some reason did not arrive and now since the route has been changed it is also very irregular. The Cincinnati train was a little late Monday afternoon and as a consequence the good people got no mail, but were compelled to wait 24 hours longer for it.

It is astonishing what an immense amount of lumber has been taken out of Casey county and still the supply is abundant. I will wager that there are enough trees at Yosemite now to supply all the railroads that will built in Kentucky for the next five years. One agent told me that he had received over 10,000 during the last month and that he hadn't made a shipment since Christmas.

I was glad to be informed by my old friend, Mr. E. Tarrant, that he was doing nicely with his book and that he was about ready to make his second order. The old gentleman spent several years of hard service in preparing it and it is to be hoped that it will make him as much wealth as it is sure to make him fame.

INTERVIEWED by a Louisville Post man, Col. R. P. Jacobs, of Danville, says that he is in no sense a candidate for governor. More's the pity, but we take it that he is too patriotic a man and too good a democrat to decline the nomination should it for once seek the man. Col. Jacobs is of irreproachable character and in point of ability is second to no man in the State. He would make an ideal candidate and restore the democratic majority to its original and proper dimensions. In the interview the colonel says if the democrats are hunting a new man they could not do better than unite on Judge M. C. Saufley, of whom he speaks in the highest terms. We agree with him in everything good he can say of our distinguished citizen, but like himself, Judge Saufley is seeking no political preferment now, content with what his people have given him, and striving to serve them in the most worthy manner. His friends hope yet to see him governor, but at this time he has no desire to enter the contest.

SOME time ago, a Methodist preacher at Los Angeles, Cal., prayed as follows: "O Lord, vouchsafe Thy saving grace to the Librarian of the Los Angeles City Library and cleanse her of all sin and make her a woman worthy of her office." The librarian was wroth and regarding this as a flagrant reflection on her character, she sued the preacher for $25,000 damages for slander. The defendant claimed that a prayer is a privileged communication, but the judge holds that it is not, when made in public, and that the preacher must present a better plea or pay the woman for the damage he has done her good name. This is a very important decision and preachers who are disposed to be too personal in their petitions had better make a point of it.

The Louisville Post is making war on the State Board of Equalization, which it claims should hereafter be known as the Board of Usurpation. The board seems to have misunderstood its functions and engaged in the work of getting the treasury out of the hole, by increasing the assessments right and left, when was established merely to equalize assessments, not to increase the aggregate. It has authority to increase or decrease the rate in various counties, but the Legislature could not, if it would delegate the taxing power to any board, however constituted. The board is treading on dangerous ground and if it goes too far the tax payers may resist the usurpation and refuse to pay taxes at all, and they would be justifiable in such a resolution.

It is just two months till the annual meeting of Kentucky Press Association and yet not a single invitation has been extended by the citizens of any town in the State to come and partake of their hospitality. For our part we are glad that this is thus. Let the editors meet like any other body of co-workers wherever they list, attend to whatever of business they may have on hand and frolic at their own expense like white men, if they must frolic.

The women of Ohio had their first experience in voting and being voted for, in city elections in Ohio Monday. They waded through the mud and asserted the prerogative of an American citizen in a more manly way than the men and did many things unbecoming the sex that every true man holds in the highest veneration. They seem to have gone wrong politically too, as the republicans scored heavy victories in most of the towns.

The Japanese do not kiss. They show their affection by rubbing the cheeks together. The little Japs may know a good deal about fighting, but they have a great deal to learn about somethings. It's pretty nice of course to press your cheek against the velvety one of your lady love, but for good old, permeating bliss, a kiss upon her red rose lips discounts it several to one. Yum, yum.

WHILE posing in front of her mirror, Mrs. Anna Shannon dropped dead at Cincinnati. The dispatch does not say whether death was caused by fright at her own ugliness, or a too sudden flow of conceit to the heart. Either is sufficient to produce death and the coroner's jury was in a dilemma to decide on a verdict.

THE more the people think about it the more the sound money sentiment grows. Gen. Hardin has hurt himself badly in this section by his free silver utterances and our people would not as a general thing touch Senator Blackburn with a 40-foot pole, with his pledge to keep up the fight for the free and unlimited coinage of silver.

Gov. McKinley called on President Cleveland Monday and they had a pleasant interview of half an hour together. The governor is casting wistful eyes towards the White House and wanted to see how it felt to be inside of it.

THE Louisville Ministerial Association discussed the local city government at its last meeting and Revs. Hunt and Christian, of the Baptist church, grew decidedly personal in their remarks, so much so that City Attorney Thurman will have Mr. Hunt indicted for criminal libel and sue him for slander, for charging that he was an habitual drunkard and unfit for his office. Mr. Christian was satisfied to make his remarks of a general nature. He claimed the city government there was as rank as perdition in its rottenness. The city, he held, was governed from the gambling hell, the saloon and the brothel. Since Parkhurst set the gait in New York, the preachers are reforming things with a big R and if they will proceed along the right lines, they can accomplish great good.

P. S.—Mr. Hunt has crawled. He didn't want to be defendant in such a case so he made a public and humble apology.

HAVING failed to oust her in an honorable way, the strikers at Elizabeth town have resorted to the most reprehensible tactics against Mrs. Helm. Charges against her as postmaster have been preferred, which for smallness and meanness of conception, take the whole bakery along with the cake. This kind of guerrilla warfare on a lady and the widow of the leader of the orphan brigade at that, will disgust people all over the country and make the president regret that he ever took a hand against her.

IN the municipal elections in a number of States Monday and Tuesday the republicans seem to have gotten all they went for. At St. Louis the entire republican lay-out was elected, with one exception, and that exception would not have had to be noted save for the fact that the republican nominee was a negro. A white democrat beat him. In the State, however, the democrats did a little better. Out of 44 municipalities democrats carried 25, republicans 9 and mixed tickets the other five.

SEVERAL hundred Nashville democrats signed a call for a mass meeting to protest against the effort to seat Gov. Turney, but his friends captured the assembly and adopted resolutions approving the course of the Legislature. With deep disgust depicted on their countenances, the protestants put on their hats and solemnly marched from the scene. The conspiracy to seat Turney has gone too far to be headed now.

MR. HEADLEY, secretary of State, is trying to explain out of an embarrassing predicament brought about by recent publications of the Tate scandal, but the more he talks the worse he makes matters. He is a candidate for election to the office he now holds by appointment, but his name is Dennis. A bolting democrat in the first place should never have been honored as Gov. Brown honored Mr. Headley.

A GERMAN has invented a rifle that can send a bullet, fired at shoulder height, two miles before its force is spent and at a distance of 2,000 yards would go through the bodies of seven men placed in line. Wars and rumors of wars have put the inventors on their mettle, for the days are not yet come, when the swords shall be beaten into plowshares and spears into pruning hooks.

CHICAGO voted all right for municipal reform, but she went hades, occident and distorted politically. The city council and mayor are republican by large majority, Swift being elected by 41,110. And Chicago has been a democratic city too! How things have changed since the dissolution of Elizabeth?

A RIFT in the cloud no larger than a man's hand discloses a silver lining on the other side. In Wisconsin a democrat was elected to the supreme bench by a majority of 10,000 and one democrat is chosen councilman at St. Louis. Let us give thanks.

At the election in Rhode Island Wednesday the democrats gained a Senator. They have three now in a total of 35. Oh, we are getting there!

—The Paris stallion show Monday had fewer entries than for years.

—The Louisville colt, Laureate, won the Derby at Little Rock, with ease over a fine field.

—Polk Bond bought of Hardin Field, of Woodford county, 25 yearling steers at $15.—Glasgow Times.

—J. H. Edmiston, of Atlanta, bought a car-load of three-year-old mules from Sam Cecil at $55.—Advocate.

—Yates Hudson sold Monte Fox 50 lambs for delivery between May 20th and June 1st at 5c.—Advocate.

—Charles Fleischman, the millionaire turmpian, has made Hankins and Johnson an offer of $150,000 for Diggs.

—At Richmond court, cattle sold at 2½ cents, and demand great. Plug horses $16 to $60. Stallion show small.

—John Cook has traded his stallion, Ganoor, by Gambetta Wilkes, to Geo. Austin, of Garrard, for four good harness mares and geldings.

—J. E. Farris will have three stallions in the stud this year: Royal King, Eaglet and Chester Denmark. All are splendid saddlers and are well bred. His advertisement will appear in Friday's paper.

—A train of 16 cars of California cattle were received in Omaha last Thursday and sold at $1.75 for 287 steers averaging 1,145 lbs., with 10 steers at $4.25, and $4.05 for 74 heifers averaging 1,041 lbs.

—The April crop report makes the condition of wheat 85.3, or two points lower than was reported last year immediately after the severe March freezing. The plant is but little further advanced than it was in December.

—Wanted, 100,000 pounds of wool. Highest market price guaranteed. Before you sell, see my agents T. S. Elkin, Lancaster, J. S. Moberly, McKinney, Wm. Rout, Hustonville, Wallace Steele, Rolling Fork or myself at Stanford. Wilkin Moreland.

—Horse advertisements are coming in pretty well. In the last week Madison Sandidge & Son, B. F. Powell, T. A. Coulter, J. Steele Carpenter, E. P. Woods and Josiah Bishop have been added to our list. See description and pedigrees of their horses on our sixth page.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Hon. John Harvey Walton and Mrs. Susan Fraze Walton celebrated their golden wedding at Germantown Wednesday. They are the parents of Col. Matt Walton, late of Lancaster.

—"All things come to him who waits" is an adage that has been verified in the case of Mr. James Peoples. After living 67 years in single cussedness, he has at last found a wife, to whom he was yesterday joined in the sacred and holy relation. The bride is Miss Sallie Teeters and she is just 43 years younger than her liege lord. May and December sometimes unite in apparent satisfaction to both parties, and we hope it may prove so in this instance, making the old gentleman's last days his best days.

—Mr. C. C. Breese, the handsome young jeweler, who lived here for several years, was married last Sunday to Miss Kate Jarman, of Murfreesboro, Tenn., where Mr. Breese is in business.

—It was sort of a runaway affair and after the ceremony at Salem, a local paper says that they returned to Murfreesboro "to sue for parental sanction. Mr. Breese is a well-known and popular young jeweler and has a host of warm friends in that city, while his lovely and beautiful bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Jarman and one of the most attractive young ladies in Murfreesboro."

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—Casey county gets a raise of 10 percent on land.

—Miss Jane Shortwell has been appointed postmaster at Tidal Wave, Whitley county.

—Dr. J. W. Gill, of Danville, died Monday, aged 70. He was a native of Garrard and a grand son of Chief Justice Boyle.

—The Mercer republicans instructed for Col. W. O. Bradley for governor and so did the Rockcastle republicans.

—Henry Norwell, who killed a slight of performer in Mercer county two years ago, has just been captured in Scott county.

—Mercer county republicans refused to endorse a colored brother of that county, who is a candidate for Register of the Land Office.

—S. M. Wilson, of Woodford county, won the primary oratorical contest which makes him Centre's representative in the great Southern Inter-State contest, which will be held at Lexington, Va., early in May.

—Mr. A. H. BASTIN is spreading himself at Crab Orchard. Not content with running one of the largest stores there, he has opened a hotel, the "Bastin House," near the depot, and is prepared to serve the public in the best of style. He has a livery stable also and will haul his patrons to any part of town free. Read his card in this issue and register with him the next time you go to the "Orchard."

FEEL like doing something outrageous, Jack."

" Worse than usual, Jill?"

" Very far above and beyond anything I've ever done."

" May the saints preserve me!" and then silence fell between them.

Jill drew the vase of jonquils over to her side of the table, and began tearing the pretty yellow blossoms to pieces.

Jack caught the fair, destructive fingers in his own.

" You are bent on mischief, Jill; I fear we shall both come to grief, as did our namesakes before us, unless you leave off your bad habits."

" When we are sober, married people, Jack, living out at Elmwood, I shall be a model of sedate propriety, but now I'm hungering and thirsting for fun."

" Their somebody will suffer. I fear me you are a bloodthirsty little vixen."

" I'm afraid so, Jack. Do you know what I am thinking of now?"

" No, Jill; they say there is honor among thieves. Perhaps if I join in carrying out your deep and dark plans I may escape the misery that I fear you are hoping to bring upon me."

" And you'll really help me? Jack, you are the joy of my life!" Jill pushed the jonquils away, and turned a bright face up to her sweethearts. " Uncle Bert is away now," she went on, " and it's time for our fun. Only two days before April first! Come, Jack, we must keep on the good side of Uncle Bert, you know."

" I find I cannot play at the wedding," she said, " but one of my pupils will do so."

Jack thanked her and went on.

" I'm afraid I shall die, Jack."

" Wait until it's over, Jill. I want you to see them waiting, and then I want you to hear what Uncle Bert has to say when he comes home. We must sympathize with him of course. We must keep on the good side of Uncle Bert, you know."

Wednesday came, and the church was ready. At twilight the old sexton lighted the lamps, and the village began to cram itself within the festooned walls.

Jill came in leaning on Jack's arm.

She was lovely in her light dress, and looked modest and demure as is becoming to the young wedding guest. Jack chewed his mustache, and refrained from looking at her. Curiosity was the prevailing sentiment.

" Who is the bride?" whispered one fat old lady to another.

" The land knows; I hain't heard."

" Is she coming with him from the city?" asked a third. " No one knew. The whispers were all questions.

The tall, stately minister walked sedately up the aisle, and seated himself with slow dignity inside the altar railing. He looked out over his assembled people with what he evidently hoped to be a joyous smile, well who meant to die and leave his wealth and his home to his nephew and niece. When he awoke the sun was shining in his face. After breakfast he saw a trim little figure coming up the walk, and his very strange old heart stirred about in a peculiar way.

" I left my music, or I lost it. Thank you; I'm so glad to get it."

Little Miss Basset almost hugged the roll in her joy.

" I'll find out all I can to-day, and tell you. I think some one has been planning very big April fool for the whole town. Just think of the girls decorating the church, and the congregation and preacher waiting!" and, in spite of her duty to Uncle Bert, little Miss Basset's bright eyes twinkled, and her cheeks dimpled.

Uncle Bert cleared his throat. " It's a whaling joke," he said.

" Yes, and a cruel one."

" Suppose it wasn't a joke?" he said nervously.

" But it is."

" It needn't be. I'd be ready enough to fall into their plans if you could get some one else to play the march!"

" What for?" she asked, stupidly.

" I should want you to keep me in countenance. Let me tell you, Polly Basset, I'm in earnest. If you think you could be happy with a rough old fellow like me, let's turn the joke on 'em."

Miss Basset was a little late, and her lessons were all failures, that day. She saw the young people working away in the church, and she noticed Jack and Jill among the others. Somehow they seemed to enjoy it more than the others. After school she met Jack.

" I find I cannot play at the wedding," she said, " but one of my pupils will do so."

Jack thanked her and went on.

" I'm afraid I shall die, Jack."

WHERE THE RIVER FLOWS.

There's a music that dwells in the heart of the stream.

And a mystery breathes in its flow.

For I often look back, and sometimes a gleam

Of the castles I've built will fit to and fro,

And fade.

Where the river flows

And I've dreamed as I've watched it go flowing along.

That a beautiful fair-land lay

Afar, in the mist of the hills where its song

Is born, and I've dreamed that some day

LIVE STOCK AT WINDSOR CASTLE.

Pictures of Two Horses Belonging In the British Royal Family.

Queen Victoria has always been distinguished as a successful live stock breeder. Her fat bullocks and heavy swine frequently take premiums at the shows and agricultural fairs. At her principal home, Windsor castle, are birds and beasts of many kinds, a regular menagerie, in short.

The Prince of Wales has some live stock. Although Albert Edward has never been so famous as his mother in the live stock breeding line, yet the horse here shown belongs to him and is in its way no slouch.

Perhaps Wales, with the sense of humor uppermost, named this horse for his son and successor, the Duke of York. At any rate, Duke of York is the name of the handsome and showy hackney stallion in the illustration. The duke is as handsome and spirited looking as some of the hackneys imported into the United States by members of our American nobility and reigning families. He is dark chestnut in color. He stretches his hind legs back with the best.

It would take a strain of the imagination to picture good, stout old Queen Vic riding on horseback, and it would require a still greater strain on the part of the horse that could carry her, yet it is a fact that her gracious majesty was once a most graceful rider.

Her favorite riding mare, Jessie, is still kept in great state at Windsor castle and is still trotted out to see her royal mistress occasionally. The late Prince Albert, John Brown and this mare Jessie have probably shared a larger portion of the queen's affections than any other creatures. Jessie is now 27 years old. Old as she is, it is quite likely her royal mistress will survive her.

Winter Live Stock Notes.

The days rapidly lengthen during this month, and however cold the weather may be the farmer feels the pleasant assurance that the time when darkness lasts longer than the light must soon be past. The farmer does not grow anything in winter, but the florist and market gardener find in the lengthening days that it is easier to make healthy growth as the days grow longer. Plenty of heat can be maintained in the days when sunlight is scarce, but it does not make vigorous, healthful growth. As closely as the gardener observes his vegetables the advantage of increasing sunlight would be equally obvious. The breeding animals ought to be kept out of doors during a part at least of each sunshiny day. If this rule were observed, they would be less affected by disease than the most carefully sheltered stock is now liable to be.

A cornstalk diet, to which some corn on the ear is added occasionally, makes a very good feed for cows bearing young and due to calve in the spring. This keeps the bowels reasonably laxative, and there is less likelihood of fever to make parturition difficult and dangerous when its time comes than if the animal is fed on hay. We knew an old farmer who said he made it a practice to give each cow for at least two weeks before calving a dozen nubbins of corn each day to insure easy and safe parturition. In a long experience his cows never gave any trouble at this time, while those who did not make this a practice had cows which suffered from caked hay and milk fever. He was very sure that feeding the corn in the ear was what was responsible for his success.

Exchange.

Varying Weight of Beef Cattle. The British Dairy Farmers' association issue a useful summary of their "transactions" in 1894, from which we gather that the mean live weight of the Shorthorns at their shows for the last four years, including that just closed, has varied singularly little. There is a net increase of nine pounds on the four years. Jerseys show only two pounds change, but Guernseys get heavier every year, and the increase from 1890 is a mean 110 pounds per animal, a big change. Ayrshires have similarly gone up from 1,016 to 1,153 pounds, but cross-bred cattle have gone down, and there are no definite changes in Red Polls (Norfolk cattle) or in Kermes. The last named vary a good deal, but there seems no regular tendency toward reduced or increased mean weight. Of the seven breeds the Shorthorns are the heaviest and then the crossbred cattle. Guernseys, Ayrshires and Red Polls occupy a medium position, and the smallest cattle are the Kermes and the Jerseys. In 1893 the Jersey were smaller than the Kermes, but this was reversed last year.

Live Stock Points.

There was a fearful glut of inferior sheep at the Chicago Union stockyards last year. It seems as if all the fat ends and tags of sheep ought to be about sold off by this time.

The Trakehner coach horse of Germany is very large, from 16 to 17 hands high and weighing 1,200 to 1,400 pounds. He is a very handsome, spirited animal.

Fourth.—That quality, style, size and action are indispensable qualifications of good coach horses.</

MRS. BENEDICT SPALDING, of Lebanon, arrived yesterday to visit her father, Col. T. P. Hill.

MRS. ANNA VAN ARSDALE, of Harrodsburg, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. J. McRoberts.

BOYLE NICHOLS, of Danville, was here yesterday advertising the "Globe" Clothing House.

MR. W. H. SHANKS went to Louisville Wednesday to replenish his stock and to visit his sister, Mrs. T. A. Rice.

JUDGE J. B. DENNIS was here yesterday, selling carriages and buggies and shaking hands with old friends.

MR. W. H. TINSLEY, special agent traffic department of the L. & N., was with Mr. J. S. Rice, Wednesday.

MRS. AMANDA CROW, widow of the late James Crow, is very ill at Mr. W. E. McFee's at McKinney, and her physicians have given her up.

MR. J. C. FERGUSON, who has been living in Illinois for two years, is here. His health has failed him and he hopes to be benefited by the trip. He left six inches of snow at home.

MISS DOLLIE WILLIAMS will leave today to join Mrs. Cecilia Eppenhausen Bailey, for whom she will be pianist. Besides a musical feast, it will be a beauty show, for both ladies are unusually gifted in personal charms.

DR. J. G. CARPENTER has returned from Knoxville, where he attended a banquet at the Tennessee Medical College. He responded to the toast "The Ideal Doctor" and made a decided hit. We understand that a choice of six chairs in the institute will be tendered the doctor, but his friends here hope he will not accept any of them. Mrs. Carpenter accompanied the doctor on his trip.

CITY AND VICINITY.

SPECTACLES fitted by Danks, the optician.

FISHING tackle cheap. W. B. McRoberts.

BORN, to the wife of Hayden Shanks, of Rowland, a 10-pound boy.

SEE our elegant Easter novelties. Danks, the leading jeweler.

No one is April fooled who buys their goods from Danks, the jeweler.

If you want first-class cakes, biscuits and lightbread get Obelisk Flour from J. C. Florence.

HARVE STEWART, colored, was pretty badly hurt by being thrown from a wagon in a runaway Tuesday.

MRS. SUSAN HARRIS has opened a dress-making establishment at Mr. Peter Straub's and invites the ladies to patronize her.

SUPT. W. F. McCCLARY asks us to inform the teachers that he has 5 per cent. of the amounts due them, which he will pay on demand.

If you want good, strong, home-made harness, the place to go is M. S. & J. W. Baughman's. They will sell you the best at the lowest prices.

FOR RENT.—House, garden, all necessary outbuildings and three acres of grass land near toll gate on the Danville pike. A. D. Root, Stanford.

It will be sad news to the children and parents who go to circuses "just to take the children," to learn that John Robinson's circus will not "go out" this season.

MRS. LUCILLE BRAZLEY has returned from the cities and is now opening up a line of millinery that is bound to please the most fastidious. See her before you buy your Easter hat.

G. B. COOPER has bought out his partner, Mr. J. H. YEAGER, and will run the livery business alone. Mr. YEAGER is undecided as to his future, but he will likely go to farming.

LADIES remember our perfection shoes in Oxfords; Pickadilles, Common Sense, &c., &c., and you gentlemen ought not to forget our Cordovan and tan shoes in all cuts and widths. Hughes & Tate.

We want 100,000 pounds of wool, 10,000 pounds of bacon sides and hams, 1,000 pounds of feathers and 1,000 dozen eggs in exchange for dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes and hats, at the lowest cash price. Hughes & Tate.

The wife of Bannister Williams died yesterday.

The managers of "Louva, the Panper" have secured a change of date at the Opera House to the 19th.

The ladies are invited to my Spring opening of millinery, April 8, 9 and 10. Mrs. A. A. McKinney.

A NUMBER of our citizens will go to Danville to-night to hear Frank G. Carpenter, the noted newspaper correspondent, lecture on Japan, which country he has recently visited.

J. W. FLOWERS sold his place of 30 acres near Rowland to Col. W. H. Duderar yesterday for $3,000. Mr. Flowers thinks of leaving this section, but his friends hope he will change his mind.

It is a long lane that has no turn and ours seems to have reached the turning point. The advertisers have it almost their own way in this issue. Read what they have to say. It will prove profitable.

The city council of Danville decrees that bicyclists must keep in the "middle of the road" and not ride on the pavements. Our council might follow suit, though our cyclers behave pretty well in that regard.

MRS. ELIZABETH WILCHER, aged 50, of the South Fork neighborhood, was tried before a jury Wednesday and pronounced insane. She was taken to the asylum at Lexington by Deputy Sheriff R. M. Newland and S. W. Menefee.

The weather so far has been very typical of April. Rain and sunshine, pleasant and chilly, have alternated, until yesterday, when the sun shone all day in a cloudless sky. Generally fair, warmer, is the prediction now at hand.

MR. J. C. REID won at raffle Wednesday the diamond ring he recently raffled and which was won by Mr. J. H. Kirby. The fortunate number was 133. This ring has changed hands a number of times in this way. Mr. Kirby realized $160 from it.

THERE are two more entries in the house painting Derby, Judge M. C. Saufley and W. H. Higgins. Mr. S. P. Stagg has almost completed the improvements on his house on West Main and will go to house keeping soon. The new iron fence adds much to the looks of the premises.

TWO WEEKS have elapsed and our offer to publish articles favoring free turnpikes has not been accepted. The advocates of the measure have no especial arguments to present in its favor. They want them just like they do free lunch and other free things, that is for somebody else to pay for them.

THE dinner advertised for court day by the Ladies' Aid Society will be spread in the store-room next to Withers & Hocker's Furniture Store. The menu will be very comprehensive and the price but 25 cents. You will save money and help a good cause by dining with the ladies. Remember the exchange will be open Saturday as usual and that you can get everything good to eat there.

MESSES. W. S. BURCH and R. M. Newland have formed a partnership, under the firm name of Burch & Newland, to do a general collection business. Mr. Burch will contribute the law and Mr. Newland, who is deputy sheriff, the power, and woe be to the man who gets in their clutches. They will almost be able to get blood out of a turnip. Try them on some fellow who wont pay his honest debts.

STANDARD TIME GOES.—After we have had standard time for three or four months, the democratic members of the fiscal court tried Tuesday to have the town clock changed up to sun time, but the republican members were not so old foggy and voted solidly to let well enough alone. This settles the matter finally and for good and thanks to our friends, the enemy, it was settled in the only sensible way. Gentlemen, we are very much yours truly.

MORE TAXES.—The fiscal court, Judge G. M. Davison, John Edmiston, John Bailey, W. L. Dawson and A. G. Faulkner present, met Tuesday and fixed the county levy at 23½ cents, which is 5½ more than last year. The amount is to be divided as follows: 4 cents to pay interest on bonds, 10 for roads and 9½ for ordinary expenses. This makes the State and county tax now 66 cents on the $100. The poll tax was not increased and remains at $1.25. J. B. Paxton was appointed to prepare a statement of the financial condition of the county for publication. Court then adjourned till 4th Monday in this month.

THE officers of the Ladies of the Macabees lodge here just organized are as follows: Mrs. A. A. McKinney, past commander; Mrs. Dr. O'Bannon, commander; Miss Helen Thurmond, lieutenant commander; Mrs. E. G. Waller, chaplain; Mrs. Annie James, record-keeper; Mrs. M. F. Elkin, finance-keeper; Miss Montie Harris, sergeant; Mrs. Henry Lammers, mistress-at-arms; Mrs. A. V. Sizemore, Mrs. Joe S. Rice, Miss Georgia Wray, banner bearers; Mrs. Elina Moore, sentinel; Mrs. R. Zimmer, picket; Mrs. Jos. E. Farris, organist. They will meet twice a month in Odd Fellows Hall, that lodge having voted unanimously to tender the ladies the use of the hall free. Twenty odd members now belong to the ladies tent here with more petitions to be presented at their next meeting.

Committee.

BRODHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

Born, to the wife of W. O. C. Raynolds, a fine girl, March 29.
Mr. G. W. Farris and Miss Lena Overbay were married on the 4th.

Miss Neville Carson has received a nice lot of millinery. Rooms opposite J. T. Cherry's store.

Bert Hays and beautiful sister, Miss Anna, of Wildie, paid Brodhead a visit Sunday. Miss Iva Painter is visiting her sister, Mrs. Rice, of Livingston, this week.

Little Ellen Noaks, of Corbin, died last Thursday, and her father brought her to Brodhead for interment. There was quite a crowd of the Corbin people accompanying the remains.

J. Thomas Cherry having purchased the entire interest of J. E. Woodard in the firm of Woodard & Cherry, commenced business April 1st, adopting the cash system, thereby making a wonderful change in prices on all lines of goods.

The S. S. convention held at the Baptist church was well attended. Quite a number of good speeches on different subjects were made. Everybody seemed to enjoy the meeting and many expressed themselves as being amply paid for their time.

Miss Minnie Roberts, of Gum Sulphur, has been visiting Miss Lillie Wilmet this week. Miss Alice Hays, of Crab Orchard, who has been visiting friends, has returned home. Miss Jessie Albright spent Sunday with relatives here. Mr. Jonas McKenzie, of Mt. Vernon, was with the brethren at the convention Saturday and Sunday and was elected chairman of same.

Mr. A. E. Albright, a popular grocer, eloped to Jellico, Tenn., on last Saturday night with Miss Dollie Turpin, a beautiful and charming young lady, and were married there by D. C. Moses, city magistrate, at 5 o'clock Sunday morning. Then they boarded 24 for Brodhead, where they were met by many relatives and friends, who saluted them with good wishes and also by the band boys, who welcomed their leader and his young bride by serenading them to J. W. Tate's, where a nice dinner was served.
